Dearly Beloved,

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

The news of the transition to eternal glory of our darling mother, grandmother and the indefatigable Chairperson of the Livingspring Indigent Students' Scholarship Board, Ile-Ife, Nigeria, Mrs. Egunoluwa Kofoworola Balogun (nee Daramola), came to us a rude shock about 24 hours ago. To imagine that our darling Mama has gone in a blaze of glory is still incomprehensible to our finite human minds!

We fondly remember her for her dependability, generosity, conviviality and boundless passion for the less privileged. Indeed, she spared no efforts in sourcing and harnessing resources for assisting less privileged students to get through school successfully. We have been privileged to drink from the fountain of her wisdom and share from her wealth of insight. She was ever punctual to meetings, often driving herself, and freely releasing her resources to be a blessing to all. Such lovely souls do not die; they only shed this mortal body which they were given for a season, in order to live forever.

We wholeheartedly pray for our Papa, Prof. E. E. Balogun and all of Mama E. K. Balogun's children, grandchildren, in-laws and church family, that the Almighty God will uphold you during this challenging time. We pray that He will be your succor and comfort you beyond human words. We pray that you will find strength in knowing that Mama E. K. Balogun lived well as God's gift to humanity and that there will be a blessed reunion on the glorious Resurrection Morning for all who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour and Redeemer.

From the entire Livingspring Indigent Students' Scholarship Board family, kindly accept our condolences.

Sincerely,
