

AMVETS Name Post After Hero

SAN LEANDRO, April 21. — The new southern Alameda County AMVETS Post will be named after Pvt. Billy D. Hart, Korean War hero.

Private Hart was killed Sept. 6, 1951, on Heartbreak Ridge, two weeks before his 19th birthday. He joined the Army at 15 and served a total of three and a half years.

His mother, Mrs. Edna Hart of 818-C Stalker Way, Alameda, a metalsmith's helper at Alameda Naval Air Station, will be on hand for the dedication to be held Saturday at 8 p.m. during a post dance in the San Leandro Veterans Memorial Building.
