The Obituary

Her name is Mazarina in Spanish and Mazarine in English. Mazarine Levy Snyder was born to the proud parents of Samuel Levy and Miriam McKinley on November 15, 1928, in the Isles of Pines of Cuba. Mazarine had four brothers and two sisters. They are: Rita, Mercedes, Samuel, Arturo, Lucas, Armando, and Luther. Mazarina has now moved on to join her parents, brothers and sister Rita in the hereinafter. She has one sister alive and that is Mercedes Colon.

Mazarina attended high school in Cuba and got her education and ministry degrees in the United States. She studied baby nursing and education. She loved and worked well with children. She had a passion for reading. She retired and worked as a bilingual educator for the New York City Board of Education.

Mazarine Levy-Snyder was an ordained minister through the Norman Vincent Peal School of Theology. She was sweetly saved, sanctified, and filled with the holy ghost. She was gifted in the area of compassion. She had a heart of gold. She loved people and life.

Mazarine Levy married John Snyder in 1959 in Brooklyn, New York. This marriage produced two lovely and strikingly intelligent daughters, Miriam Snyder and Myra Snyder-Scott.

Mazarine Levy-Snyder passed away in Florida on March 14, 2019. Mazarine leaves to cherish her loving memories her daughter: Miriam Snyder, her grandchildren Elijah Joseph Scott, and Heru Scott, several nieces, nephews, in laws, cousins, and a host of other family members and friends. We will always love Mazarine Levy Snyder who is known as the Best Mother in the World!

Mazarine Levy Snyder will be remembered for her outstanding contributions to the world in the field of Theology, Love of Christ, Bilingual Education, TESOL, Human Rights Advocacy, and Natural Holistic Medicine. She will never be forgotten. Mazarine Levy Snyder did indeed help make this world a better place and we thank God for the gift of life that God bestowed upon her.

It is declared and decreed, in the name of Jesus Christ, that Mazarine Levy Snyder, will rest and sleep with God and his Angels. It is further decreed, in Jesus name, that her spirit will be used on this earth, as a guardian angel to protect all God's people, in particular Targeted Individuals, from all demonic attacks.

Finally, please remember that our physical death isn't the end, but rather is a step forward in our Heavenly Father's plan and a time of indescribable joy for the person making the transition. Thank God for allowing us to enjoy the life of Mazarine Levy Snyder.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Snyder Family

A MOTHER'S UNFORGETTABLE LOVE

My mother Mazarine Levy Snyder was a vibrant soul, one who literally lit up the room whenever she entered. And right up until she became less able to get around, Mom was full of joy and always eager to help out, no matter what.

Her walking became a problem, so she took joy in sitting down and cutting up seasonings and fruit, for upcoming meals. She always found a way to be useful and help out. Her willingness to help and work straight to the end, is beyond reproach.

Being a mother of two, Myra and Miriam, Mom juggled the demands of us all, but she never complained at her unenviable task, nor did she ever turn anyone away—be it family, friends or local faces, wanting to stop by the house for a quick chat. Mom had an inherent love of people.

My lasting memories of Mom are simple: a hard-working, passionate figure of strength who never waned in her support or love of her family, and who soldiered on, even when times were tough. It is a great privilege to write this to express the sadness that all of us share over her loss.

Mom, I love you, and thank you for everything you've given us—and the warmth we shared during your precious time on earth. God bless you. Always.

SCRIPTURES TO HOLD ONTO:

Rom. 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Isaiah 57:1-2

The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness, for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
