

WILLIAM BRETT TRACY

SEPTEMBER 2, 1958 – APRIL 14, 2020

Brett Tracy passed away on April 14th, 2020 at Eastside Medical Center in Snellville, GA with his wife Shannan Tracy by his side. Brett was set to turn 62 years old in September of 2020.

Brett was hospitalized March 28, 2020. We were not able to see him or visit him during his fight with this illness due to the quarantine protocol in place except at the end of his life.

Brett was born September 2, 1958 to Paul and Peggy Tracy while Paul was stationed in Fayetteville, North Carolina during his service to our country.

Brett grew up in Alamo, TN and graduated from Alamo High School in 1976. He attended Vanderbilt University his first year of college, completing his degree at Lambuth University in Jackson, TN. Upon graduation from Lambuth, he attended Mercer Southern School of Pharmacy in Atlanta, Georgia. He opened his first pharmacy, Tracy's Medicine Center, in Chamblee, GA in 1986.

Brett Tracy was a hero, a champion, a kind-hearted soul, and a generous man who devoted his entire life to helping others. He was an ambitious intellectual with a wealth of knowledge and a tenacity to share it with others. He had empathy, integrity, strength, and determination. He touched countless lives and was a great mentor to many.

He was preceded in death by his father Paul Douglas Tracy. He is survived by his wife, Shannan Tracy, his three sons Dakota Tracy (Morgan), Jackson Tracy, and Tucker Tracy, his mother Peggy Tracy, and his sister Daphne Tracy Foust (Alan).

A private family burial service will be held on Sunday, April 19 2020. There will be no public viewing. We will plan for a celebration of life memorial service at a later date.

We would like to express our sincerest gratitude to each and every of you that has called, messaged, or stopped by. Your love, concern, and compassion is greatly appreciated by our family during this difficult time.
